COL. SMITH

Holds the Fort at Angeles.

Rebellion Gains Strength in Negros and Cebu.

Leading Men Have Gone Over to the Insurgents.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

MANILA, Aug. 16.—The insurgents have been concentrating for two days before Angeles. It is officially announced that Col. Smith, with ten companies of the Twelfth regiment, and two guns of battery E, first artillery under Lieut. Kemley, this morning attacked 2500 strongly entrenched insurgents at the southern approach to Angeles and drove them back after a sharp fight. The American troops losing two killed and 12 wounded. The insurgent loss is estimated at 200 men. Our force will hold Angeles. About 200 insurgents appeared this morning in front of Dolores, a short distance north of Pore, but were driven off by one company of the Twelfth regiment under command of Capt. Anglin. One American was wounded.

MANILA, Aug. 12, via Hong Kong, Aug.—Arrivals and mail advices from Negros and Cebu agree that the insurrection is gaining strength remarkably in both those islands, which had hitherto been counted as the most friendly in the archipelago, and which received with the greatest cordiality Professor Schurman, president of the United States advisory commission for the Philippines, at the time of his memorable tour.

Outbreaks are feared, particularly in Cebu, where some of the leading men have gone over to the insurrection. Many of the wealthy inhabitants are preparing to leave the island.

Senores Torento and Meliza, supreme court justices from Negros and Cebu, have gone thither from Manila to use their influence against the insurrection.

The results of the autonomist government in Negros are disappointing. Insurgent bands are operating there as they did in Cebu, destroying much plantation property, claims for which are being presented to General Otis.

The bombardment of Paete, on the east side of Laguna de Bay, by the Napidan, whose commander, Lieutenant Copp, was under the impression that the town had been recaptured by the insurgents, aroused strong resentment among the natives of the whole lake region. It is asserted there that the officers and crew of the gunboat landed and looted the best buildings after the bombardment. The crew of the Napidan has been transferred to other duty.

Officers of the United States gunboat Wheeling, which has returned here from a cruise along the northern coast of Luzon, report that the insurgent forces occupy every village.

IOWA DEMOCRATS.

Meet in State Convention At Des Moines, Today.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 16.—This city was full of Democrats last night, who came from all parts of the state to attend the democratic state convention and hear William J. Bryan, General J. B. Weaver and others speak. Two great meetings were held, the main one at the Auditorium, where Hon. William J. Bryan spoke to 5000 people, and the other at the Tabernacle, where General Weaver spoke for an hour until Mr. Bryan came from the first meeting.

The auditorium was crowded, and the audience, which included practically all the delegates to the convention, took every opportunity to applaud. Mr. Bryan took up the silver question, saying prosperity did not set in until six months after election, when the Klondike gold mines began to be heard from. The Republicans who claim that times are better because the balance of trade is in favor of the United States, gave away their own position, he said, and admit that the Democratic view of the quantitative character of money is correct. The 6,000,000 Democratic voters in 1896 were for silver. The 7,000,000 Republican were for a platform which called for international bimetalism. Only the Palmer and Buckner voters were for the gold standard—less than 1 per cent—yet now the Iowa Republican platform gives a step farther and is mainly for gold alone. Moreover, he said, the Republicans threaten to retire the greenbacks, though they have never been before the people on that issue. The speaker next went after the trusts, but said, if the Democratic party neglected the silver question to attend to the trusts, it would rightly forfeit the confidence of the people. The money trust is the biggest trust of all. He was glad that the traveling men were fighting the industrial trust now, but sorry they had not seen the logic of events in 1896, and helped to fight the money trust. The men who make trust speeches and applaud them are bankers. A new danger of the trusts has been developed, he said. When a trust gets control of all the factories in a given line and the hands in one factory strike, the trust will close that one and make its goods at the other. When the workmen at that place are starved to the point of working for any wages offered that factory will be reopened and a lockout to reduce wages will be inaugurated at another factory.

Mr. Bryan closed his speech by a lengthy discussion of imperialism. The difference, he said, between a republic and an empire is this: A republic needs an army of 25,000 for 70,000,000 people. An empire needs four times as large an army when 10,000,000 population is added. This suits the young men who get fat jobs in the army, but not the people who pay the $1500 a year needed to maintain each soldier in the Philippines.

Mr. Bryan gave figures to show that England and other nations do not colonize rapidly, and said that, with 20 people to the square mile in America, and 60 to the mile in the Philippines, there is no opportunity there. Said he: "Even if we succeed in killing off all the natives, you cannot get young Americans to go there. They prefer to live in Iowa and Nebraska. The profit will not go to the right people, but to investment syndicates. Even if any man is willing to trade for postage, and does not have a taste for birthright, he had better investigate the postage. As the Tagals are largely Christians, and our native allies are largely Mohammedan, we ought to ask the sultan to help us subdue the Christian insurgents. This government ought to make a declaration of good intentions toward the Philippines as it did toward Cuba. The president ought to have done so, or, if he did not have the power, should ask congress for it. Now, he might call a special session to ask for the power. Cleveland called a special session to repeal the Sherman act, and McKinley called one. A special session now would cost much money, but not nearly so much as the continuance of war."

COMPANY K.

Is Given a Reception by the German
Evangelical Church.

To the pastor and members of German Evangelical church belongs the honor of tendering the first reception to the volunteers of Company K, since their arrival home.

Tuesday evening their little church on the corner of Center and Liberty streets was filled on the occasion of a reception given to four members of the congregation, who have just returned from Manila in Company K, and the other members of the company were cordially invited to consider themselves also as honored guests. Quite a number of the boys were present and were enthusiastic over the entertainment given them. The four members referred to were Henry and John Janzen, Hermann Amaler and Leon Gerard.

The pastors of the German Evangelical church present were Rev. H. E. Hornschuch, pastor, Rev. E. Maurer, of Portland and Rev. A. E. Englehart, of Canby. Rev. A. E. Myers of the English Evangelical and Rev. Schunke of the German Baptist were also present.

The first part of the entertainment was given in the church and the program included the singing of "America" in German and English; prayer by Rev. Schunke, addresses by Rev. Myers and the pastor, songs by a quartet consisting of Jacob and Henry Wenger, Mrs. Alice Wenger and Miss Emma Wenger, instrumental trio by Jacob, Mrs. Alice and Miss Emma Wenger.

The hit of the evening was an original songwriting "Company K" as its theme, and sung by the quartette. The boys were highly pleased with this.

After the conclusion of this program, adjournment was taken to the pastor's residence, next door, where a fine lunch was spread, including ice cream and all sorts of delicacies.

When this had been disposed of a general social time was enjoyed by all. Games were played, and the back yard, lighted by Chinese lanterns, was utilized for the festivities, which were prolonged until midnight.

The Company K boys wore their Kacki uniforms and enjoyed to the full the sweets to which their record entitles them.

Jack Robertson, inspector for the Salem Water Co. is despatching a good deal of his time to the entertainment of a big handsome carbuncle which has settled down on his right knee. This is his second visit of the kind lately.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Secretary of War Root has received a dispatch from General Davis of San Juan saying that the supplies now on hand in Porto Rico are sufficient to relieve the distress and prevent starvation until the transcript McPherson arrived.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The appalling conditions existing in Porto Rico are made more fully known to the war department today by General Davis in a dispatch in which he says the deaths outright in the island will reach 2000, from the effects of the cyclones, while many are dying from injuries and privation.

The Dreyfus Trial.

RENNES, Aug. 16.—This morning M. Demange, counsel for Dreyfus, applied for an adjournment on account of Labri's absence. Major Carriere, government commissary, opposed the application in a most vehement manner. The court retired for twenty minutes and Col. Jouaste, on its return read an unanimous decision of the court rejecting the application on ground that the reasons advanced were insufficient.

RENNES, Aug. 16.—Labri passed a better night, had some sleep, and his condition is more reassuring. The assistant of the lawyer has not been captured. The feature of the day's proceedings was the story of the sufferings of Dreyfus on Devils Island, his prison off the coast of French Guinea. Dreyfus wept in court when the clerk read the document recounting the details of his incarceration.

M. Lebon, former minister of the colonies, then testified in justification of his instructions to treat Dreyfus rigorously, declaring extreme stringency dated only from the time he thought an attempt would be made to rescue the prisoner.

Jouaste, president of the court martial, asked Dreyfus if he had any questions to put to the witness. He replied in an emotional voice: "No, my colonel, I am here to defend my honor. I don't wish to speak of the atrocious suffering, physical and mental, which, for five years, I, an innocent man, was subjected to on the Isle du Diable."

Lebon afterwards returned to the stand and added a few more words in justification of his conduct and then Jouaste ordered the next witness to be brought in. It was the widow of Col. Henry, the French officer who committed suicide in prison after confessing to forging certain documents in the case. Her testimony was of little weight. General Rogot followed. His evidence was a vitriolic diatribe against Dreyfus. Adjourned until tomorrow on conclusion of the Rogot monologue.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Welcome Members Who Have Returned
From Manila.

Castle hall of Central Lodge No. 18, Knights of Pythias was the scene of a very pleasant affair last evening. After the regular meeting of the lodge, a reception was held in honor of Lieut. Murphy and County School Supt. Jones, who have just returned with the volunteers.

The Rathbone Sisters and many visiting members of the order, from Independence, Corvallis and other points took part in the exercises.

Short speeches of welcome to the returned volunteers were made by Geo. F. Rogers, John Scott, C. C. Louis Stinson, Fred Stenloff, grand officers, and others, and responses were made by Murphy and Jones.

Stories were told and a general social and interesting time was indulged in until a late hour.

At the close of the interesting program, Lieutenant Murphy presented Central Lodge with a sword, which was captured in the Philippine campaign.

Supper was then served, everything being furnished from a restaurant, relieving the ladies of the burden which sometimes falls upon them under like circumstances.

After supper a social dance prolonged the festivities until the morning hours.

Transvaal Situation.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—The Transvaal situation is unchanged according to all information but continued delay of the Boer government's answer to Great Britain's demand, for a joint inquiry as to the effect upon outlanders of the proposed franchise reform measure, makes matters look more serious. The war office has completed preparations for an emergency force of 30,000 men to be ready to leave within a week.

PRETORIA, Aug. 16.—The British agent here denies the story that a fresh communication has been addressed by Great Britain to the Transvaal government, or that there has been any modifications of British demands.

Continental

Anti-Expansion Republican Party to Be Formed.

The Republicans of Ohio Alarmed
Over the Situation in That State.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
New York, Aug. 16.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Senator Clay, of Georgia, a Democrat, is quoted in political gossip here as having expressed the belief that there would be an anti-expansion Republican ticket in the field for the presidency next year. According to gossip the new ticket is to be called the Continental Republican, and though it is not believed it will be possible to get the former Speaker Reed's consent to head the ticket, he is counted in as one of its most effective supporters.

Boston, Aug. 16.—The Anti-Imperial League, at a meeting voted to issue a pronouncement, which was given out today through its president, ex-Governor Boutwell. The document asserts that the anti-imperialist movement has made rapid progress in the past five months and declares:

"This league is now carrying on the contest and it will continue to carry it on, upon the idea and in the belief that the United States and the president of the United States, is responsible for the war, and that President McKinley at any moment, or the United States acting through him or through a successor, can bring the war to an end. It is our purpose to aid in bringing the war to an end, and in advance we reject any and every scheme of compromise."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Ohio Republicans are more alarmed than usual over the conditions in that state. An attempt will be made to raise interest by stirring up patriotic sentiment among the people and for that reason Governor Roosevelt has been secured to open the campaign. Administration officials are much pleased that the brilliant New Yorker consents to assist at a time when his help is so much needed. The announcement is also made that Foraker will be invited to make speeches.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 16.—John R. McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, has leased the Shoemaker mansion on Pike street, from August 20 until November 20. He is expected here next week to manage his canvass for the Democratic nomination for governor at the state convention in Zanesville, Aug. 28, and will then remain here to give his personal attention to the campaign until after the November election.
